SPEAKERS

NORTH CAROLINA DISTRICT COUNCIL

WINTER SESSION

Thursday, February 19 - Saturday, February 21, 2015

Welcome

Council Bishop's Address

Praise the Lord to the North Carolina Council Leaders, Delegates and Friends. As we begin our February 2015 Council session, I encourage each delegate to obey Paul's command as written in Philippians 2:4-5.

"Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus."

Because the enemy is running out of time, he is doing his level best to hinder the work of the Lord. In like manner, we must bind together to make sure God's purpose and will is fulfilled. We have an obligation to shine as lights in this darkened world. Let us follow Jesus' example of taking on the form of a servant for the greater good of the Body of Christ. When you see a weak link in the Body of Christ, stop to strengthen that link. Don't allow the enemy to tear down what we are building for Christ.

As always, I encourage everyone to attend as many seminars and/or services as possible. Keep in mind that the purpose we come together is to strengthen and equip each other to tear down Satan's stronghold. Remember, when the Body of Christ unifies, God is glorified and His purpose is fulfilled.

*Respectfully submitted,
Diocesan Bishop Otto Richardson, Jr.*

Council Bishop's Address

NORTH CAROLINA DISTRICT COUNCIL

WINTER SESSION

Thursday, February 19 - Saturday, February 21, 2015

Council Chairman's Address

I want to extend a very warm welcome to all the members of the North Carolina District Council and to everyone who's visiting us. Whether, as a visitor, you are just having a look, or are searching for a place to have fellowship and worship, we're delighted to have you here.

To give you some idea of what we're all about, I'll quickly sketch some of our foundational beliefs.

First of all, we're all about Jesus Christ. We believe that Jesus was who he said he was, the unique Son of God who came and died for our sins. So if this is your first time in one of our assemblies, we hope that you get to know Him as we do, because He's truly what life is all about for us!

Secondly we're all about people. Every person who walks through the door is important to us. So if you ever feel like just another number, we're doing something wrong, and I give you permission to tell me about it.

Since we are Christians (like Christ), we care about you and your family and we're here, not only to feed you spiritually, but to help in any way we can. We love doing it and it's why we exist!

Thirdly, we're all about relationships. We hope to cultivate and grow meaningful and positive relationships between one another, but also go further by getting and growing in relationship with God. Christianity is all about being like Jesus, and less about a set of rules. That means that we exist to be in a relationship with you and thus exemplify our relationship with Jesus.

I want to encourage you to fill-out one of our surveys that you'll find in your registration packet or at the registration table. Just write your name and e-mail or phone number on it, since we'd love to hear from you as we continually search for ideas on ways to improve our council.

It is my prayer that you will enjoy the rest of your worship time with us, and God bless you!

*Jurisdictional Bishop G. E. Dobbin, Chairman
North Carolina District Council*
